ABOUT ALEX'S TEAM

An Andover, MA native, Alexandra “Alex” Miliotis was known for her strong-willed nature, intelligence, and wisdom that went beyond her years. Like her twin sister, Arianna, and older brother, Geordie, she was heavily involved in Andover sports throughout her childhood.

Extremely sick from chemotherapy treatments but so-wanting to be a regular teen, Alex fought very hard to beat the leukemia that ravaged her body for 10 months. She once attended a school basketball game covered with warm blankets and a head wrap, and was seated in a wheelchair at the end of the bench to cheer on the team that included her sister, Arianna. That team was known as “Alex’s Team”.

Diagnosed in May 2001, Alex died on March 15, 2002. She was just 16.

The “Alex’s Team” Foundation, Inc. was established in June 2002 in commemoration of the late Alexandra Jane Miliotis, who lost her life to leukemia at the age of 16. As a testament to Alexandra’s strength and courage throughout her battle with leukemia, the unique organization funds the front lines of pediatric oncology in their pursuit to defeat childhood cancer.

Alex’s Team Foundation was established in memory of Alexandra “Alex” Jane Miliotis, who died in 2002 after a courageous 10 month battle with leukemia. The organization is dedicated to supporting the fight against childhood cancer—funding critical research and nursing programs, raising awareness, and providing support to families who are affected by this devastating disease. As a testament to Alexandra’s strength and determination, Alex’s Team focuses on empowering those on the front lines of pediatric oncology in their pursuit to defeat childhood cancer and improve care for young patients
